

LIFE LONG LEARNING

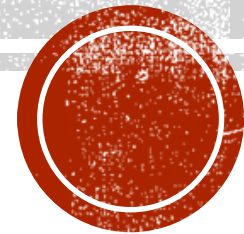

OLLI TOWN MEETING

Ray Beery, President

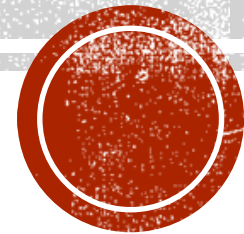

November 2017

Who are we?

An institute ... A community of learners ... An “academy”
The premier seniors education center in Northern Virginia !

What are we doing?

Three guidelines for this year:

Stability

Improvement

Expansion

How well are we doing it?

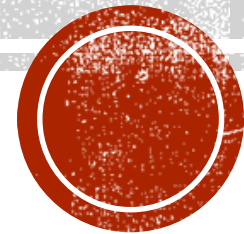

Time-tested organization and procedures insure success

Professional staff

Board of Directors

Corps of volunteers

Handbook

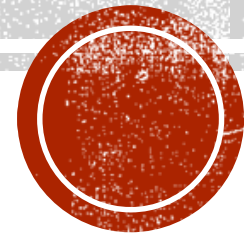

Member Survey 2018

You may submit questions now

Good constructive criticism

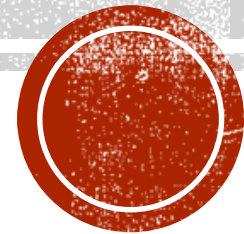

Encourage more responses ... online link and paper

Survey Comment

I am so glad a friend told me about OLLI. I have thoroughly enjoyed every class, especially my memoir class. The reason I do not volunteer as much as I should is that I live in Manassas, and it is hard to get here. Please keep asking though because I want to do all I can.

ROAD SCHOLAR[®]

Advancing Lifelong Learning Across America

At Road Scholar, we believe lifelong learning isn't just a hobby — it's a way of life. We've spent more than 40 years inspiring adults to learn on Road Scholar experiences around the world, but our dedication to lifelong learning goes beyond our educational adventures. We've built the largest network of Lifelong Learning Institutes (LLIs) across the U.S., helping adults pursue their love of learning close to home and facilitating the development of new curriculum and collaboration among our network of over 400 LLIs.

WHAT IS A LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE?

Lifelong Learning Institutes offer non-credit, college-level educational experiences, but with little or no homework and at a fraction of the cost. Classes are taught by members, retired and active faculty,